BELONG. BECOME. BELIEVE. OUR VALUES AND BEHAVIORS

Striving to be the best teaching professionals we can possibly be means that we hold ourselves directly accountable for nurturing strong minds and healthy bodies.

In developing a sport for a lifetime, our athletes acquire a high level of sportsmanship, confidence, self-esteem, and a strong work ethic.

Be sure to ask for a laminated USCTDP Bookmark that lists

Our Values & Behaviors.

CONGRATS, Doug!

Washington, PA - Our own Doug Addington continues to do remarkable work, securing the first WPIAL school title for Bethel Park High School's girls' tennis team. As the team's coach, Doug capped off a terrific run through the WPIAL playoffs with a convincing 5-0 victory over #2 seeded North Allegheny At W&J College on October 19.

Bethel Park is the first new team champion at Class 3A since North Allegheny began its run of six consecutive WPIAL titles in 2013. The Black Hawks finished the WPIAL season with gold in both team competition and in doubles (15-0, 7-0).

CONGRATS, Ellie!

When an athlete is chosen for a Sportsmanship Award, it is in recognition of how they conduct themselves as a competitor. Winning will come and go, but character stays with you.

Congratulations to Ellie Tatel, who received the Sportsmanship Award while competing in the Towpath Tournament in November.

Towpath holds annual USTA-sanctioned tournaments for juniors for adults.
